

Seminar Objective:

This 2day seminar is designed to provide participants with an understanding & discussions on what is new in ISO 14001:2015 and ISO 45001:2018 and gives an overview of new requirements and its interpretations. The course is highly useful for all the organization to understand the changes to ensure smooth transition.

Prerequisite Skills

All delegates should have an awareness on environmental aspects and safety hazards with due consideration to emissions into air and water, consumption of energy, release onto land, use of raw materials and natural resources & basic requirements of ISO 14001:2004. To provide a Risk & Process-based approach to planning and implementing Health & Safety management system. Knowledge of English is essential.

Who Should Attend?

- EHS executives/managers,
- Management representatives
- Existing internal auditors of EHS

Seminar Outline

- Provide an overview of Changes
- Key changes in requirements
- Annex SL
- Interpretation of Changed requirement
- Annexes to standard
- To provide a process-based approach to planning and implementing an integrated Environmental & safety management system.

Mode of Workshop:

- ✓ Trainer Led Instructions
- ✓ PPT
- ✓ Reference Standard